Battle of the rusty as Kuse faces Nyangani

Both fighters have not entered the ring competitively since 2019

By Bongani Magasela

Tomorrow's match between talented athletes Siyakholwa Kuse, the defending SA mini-flyweight champion and challenger Bangile "Showtime" Nyangani, at Nutting Hall in East London, should be a humdinger of a fight.

But it could well become a dud as both fighters have not boxed competitively since 2019. Kuse, from Mdantsane, left the fight fraternity gazing in disbelief with his capabilities, only to be let down by a lack of experience in longer fights against Xolisa Magusha in July 2019.

Kuse had dominated Magusha for the better part of their fight for the national title at Orient Theatre but ran out of gas towards the end of their 12-rounder to lose on points.

Four months later Kuse, who is trained by Spokes Witbooi in Mdantsane, won the domestic title when he knocked out Sibusiso Bandla.

He did not fight throughout last year due to the pandemic.

The ring rust, which is defined as a loss of mental sharpness after being away from competition, could affect his performance.

Nyangani faces the same situation. The Johannesburg-based former ABU SADC champion from Mthatha last fought in November 2019, when he won the WBA Pan African belt.

His trainer Alan Toweel Jr said of the main bout of Tewe Boxing Promotions' bill: "I think we're in for a humdinger of a title fight between these two classy fighters."

The main supporting bout of Happy Tewe's tournament features Gauteng-based Lusanda "Mexican" Komanisi in the first defence of his ABU SADC belt against Sinethemba Bam.

The challenger from Khayelitsha in the Western Cape has previously held the IBF Youth junior-featherweight belt.

Trainer Vusi Mtolo said: "Lusanda is ready mentally and physically. We are going in there to box. We know that Bam is a power house who just wants to knock opponents out and we have a plan."

CERTIFICATE OF INDEPENDENT BID DETERMINATION

- 1 This Municipal Bidding Document (MBD) must form part of all bids<sup>1</sup> invited.

- 2 Section 4 (1) (b) (iii) of the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998, as amended, prohibits an agreement between, or concerted practice by, firms, or a decision by an association of firms, if it is between parties in a horizontal relationship and if it involves collusive bidding (or bid rigging).<sup>2</sup> Collusive bidding is a per se prohibition meaning that it cannot be justified under any grounds.

- 3 Municipal Supply Regulation 38 (1) prescribes that a supply chain management policy must provide measures for the combating of abuse of the supply chain management system, and must enable the accounting officer, among others, to:
  - a. take all reasonable steps to prevent such abuse;
  - b. reject the bid of any bidder if that bidder or any of its directors has abused the supply chain management system of the municipality or municipal entity or has committed any improper conduct in relation to such system; and
  - c. cancel a contract awarded to a person if the person committed any corrupt or fraudulent act during the bidding process or the execution of the contract.

- 4 This MBD serves as a certificate of declaration that would be used by institutions to ensure that, when bids are considered, reasonable steps are taken to prevent any form of bid-rigging.

- 5 In order to give effect to the above, the attached Certificate of Bid Determination (MBD 9) must be completed and submitted with the bid:

<sup>2</sup> Bid rigging (or collusive bidding) occurs when businesses, that would otherwise be expected to compete, secretly conspire to raise prices or lower the quality of goods and / or services for purchasers who wish to acquire goods and / or services through a bidding process. Bid rigging is, therefore, an agreement between competitors not to compete.
