Cape side starts SA20 against Paarl

By Athenkosi Tsotsi

MI Cape Town captain Rashid Khan says a late decision will be taken regarding fast bowler Kagiso Rabada's participation in today's opening game of the Betway SA20 against the Paarl Royals at Newlands.

The Proteas star, who has a prolific record in T20 competitions, taking more than 200 wickets, is poised to lead the MI Cape Town bowling attack alongside Englishman Jofra Archer.

Rabada arrived yesterday in Cape Town from Australia, where he was with the Proteas for the summer Test series.

Prospects of the 27-year-old's bowling today are slim as management will make a decision on him but it seems the thought of playing him has been at the back of their minds.

"It's a massive decision," said Khan in the pre-match press conference.

"It's totally up to the player and at the same time we as the management staff haven't taken a call on it yet.

As soon as he's back, we'll see how things are; whatever

Khan ponders on whether to open attack with Rabada

he feels comfortable with and is good for him.

"We can't take a big risk as well, he's a fast bowler. It will be totally up to him and the management staff on what they decide. We'll do what's best for him and the team." Looking forward to the game, MI Cape Town will need a bowler of Rabada's calibre and pedigree when considering they will face a Royals team with some hitters in their batting lineup.

The Royals in their ranks have skipper David Miller, England captain Jos Buttler, Jason Roy and Eoin Morgan, who all can win games.

The experience of captaining that Buttler and Morgan have is something that Miller wants to tap into.

"We're very privileged to have the two captains. The experience that they have is invaluable for our squad.

"I haven't captained too many games in my career. I'm always wanting to learn and trying to improve my game as well as captaincy," Miller said.

"To have the guys alongside me, it would be silly not to use their experience, so I'm looking forward to that.

"Already they have contributed a huge amount in the lead-up to tomorrow's [today's] games."

Joburg Super Kings aim to be consistent

'Mixture of locals and players from abroad brings balance to team'

By Athenkosi Tsotsi

Joburg Super Kings (JSK) coach Stephen Fleming says they intend on playing an all-out attacking brand of cricket, keeping up with the standard of modern T20 cricket.

JSK, who are owned by the owners of Indian Premier League outfit Chennai Super Kings (CSK), will begin their Betway SA20 campaign tomorrow when they take on the Durban Super Giants at Kingsmead (5.30pm).

The CSK franchise has won the IPL four times and they have every intention to win the inaugural SA20 based on how they have deployed long-time mentor Fleming to coach their Johannesburg-based team.

Faf du Plessis, who won the IPL with CSK, will lead JSK this season. He will be flanked by the likes of Reeza Hendricks, Janneman Malan and West Indian Alzarri Joseph.

There's an air of excitement around the team and Fleming has promised they'll match that with a positive brand of cricket, especially at their home ground - the Wanderers.

"We have a very skillful group of guys, how we want to play cricket will reflect the way the game is going, which is fast. There will be some risks at some stages," said Fleming during a press conference at the Wanderers.

"The key word is consistency, and T20 is a little bit inconsistent, you have good days and bad days. So, if we can be consistent with a good brand, a positive brand will have to attract people to the ground."

Asked about the players at his disposal, Fleming said he was satisfied with the balance between the local and international players, which kept up with the CSK philosophy.

"We've got it all," said Fleming. "We have got local players which is a key part of the Super Kings philosophy; we won the competition (IPL) by local players playing well and international players adding the icing on the cake.

"We have a well-rounded squad, there's a lot of competition for international players in particular, so we are pleased with the calibre of international players we have."

CERTIFICATE OF INDEPENDENT BID DETERMINATION

- 1 This Municipal Bidding Document (MBD) must form part of all bids¹ invited.
- 2 Section 4 (1) (b) (iii) of the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998, as amended, prohibits an agreement between, or concerted practice by, firms, or a decision by an association of firms, if it is between parties in a horizontal relationship and if it involves collusive bidding (or bid rigging).² Collusive bidding is a per se prohibition meaning that it cannot be justified under any grounds.
- 3 Municipal Supply Regulation 38 (1) prescribes that a supply chain management policy must provide measures for the combating of abuse of the supply chain management system, and must enable the accounting officer, among others, to:
 - a. take all reasonable steps to prevent such abuse;
 - b. reject the bid of any bidder if that bidder or any of its directors has abused the supply chain management system of the municipality or municipal entity or has committed any improper conduct in relation to such system; and
 - c. cancel a contract awarded to a person if the person committed any corrupt or fraudulent act during the bidding process or the execution of the contract.
- 4 This MBD serves as a certificate of declaration that would be used by institutions to ensure that, when bids are considered, reasonable steps are taken to prevent any form of bid-rigging.
- 5 In order to give effect to the above, the attached Certificate of Bid Determination (MBD 9) must be completed and submitted with the bid:

² Bid rigging (or collusive bidding) occurs when businesses, that would otherwise be expected to compete, secretly conspire to raise prices or lower the quality of goods and / or services for purchasers who wish to acquire goods and / or services through a bidding process. Bid rigging is, therefore, an agreement between competitors not to compete.
