Matanzima (52), Netshituka (55) to take on ultimate human race

By Neville Khoza

As they embark on their first Comrades Marathon journey, social runners Thabisa Matanzima and Livhalani Netshituka share their stories of how they were inspired to attempt the Ultimate Human Race.

The much anticipated 85km up-run will take place on Sunday, starting from Durban to Pietermaritzburg at 5.30am.

Matanzima was inspired by her brother, who ran his first Comrades aged 50, while Netshituka was motivated by watching the action from the comfort of her couch on television.

On Sunday, Matanzima, 52, and Netshituka, 55, will be running their first race and are looking forward to the lifetime experience.

“I was inspired by my brother. He is going for his 10th and I have been supporting him all the way. So he is the one who made me know about Comrades,” Matanzima told Sowetan yesterday.

“I was there to support him all these years. His story made me believe that anyone can do it because he also started at the age of 50 and made me believe that anyone can do it. It is just how far you can push.”

Unlike her running partner Matanzima, Netshituka’s story slightly differs. She initially watched the masters running the race on television which made her believe that she, too, can do it.

“For me, nobody inspired me, it was only after seeing old people aged 70, 60 [running], that I said at 55 I can also do it,” Netshituka said.

Livhalani Netshituka and Thabisa Matanzima will be running the Comrades Marathon for the first time on Sunday. / THULANI MBELE

MUNICIPAL MANAGER - MR KM NEMANAME

“I started running in 2017 just after watching the Comrades and I was fascinated. I told myself that one day I want to run the ultra-marathon.”

Matanzima will be running for the Fat Cats Athletics Club, while Netshituka will be running for Team Vitality. Their target is just to finish the grueling race.

“My target is to be on the starting line. Qualifying for Comrades was the best thing for me, so to be in the starting line ... I think is an achievement,” Matanzima said.

Netshituka said for her, the race will start at 60km, where she will need to be strong mentally.

“Hearing stories, it’s not easy. You need to be ready and committed. And you need to be able to push boundaries ... and I hear that at 60km that’s where it is tough and I’m praying that 60km won’t be tough for me and my race will start at 60km.”

CERTIFICATE OF INDEPENDENT BID DETERMINATION

- 1 This Municipal Bidding Document (MBD) must form part of all bids<sup>1</sup> invited.

- 2 Section 4 (1) (b) (iii) of the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998, as amended, prohibits an agreement between, or concerted practice by, firms, or a decision by an association of firms, if it is between parties in a horizontal relationship and if it involves collusive bidding (or bid rigging).<sup>2</sup> Collusive bidding is a per se prohibition meaning that it cannot be justified under any grounds.

- 3 Municipal Supply Regulation 38 (1) prescribes that a supply chain management policy must provide measures for the combating of abuse of the supply chain management system, and must enable the accounting officer, among others, to:
  - a. take all reasonable steps to prevent such abuse;
  - b. reject the bid of any bidder if that bidder or any of its directors has abused the supply chain management system of the municipality or municipal entity or has committed any improper conduct in relation to such system; and
  - c. cancel a contract awarded to a person if the person committed any corrupt or fraudulent act during the bidding process or the execution of the contract.

- 4 This MBD serves as a certificate of declaration that would be used by institutions to ensure that, when bids are considered, reasonable steps are taken to prevent any form of bid-rigging.

- 5 In order to give effect to the above, the attached Certificate of Bid Determination (MBD 9) must be completed and submitted with the bid:

<sup>2</sup> Bid rigging (or collusive bidding) occurs when businesses, that would otherwise be expected to compete, secretly conspire to raise prices or lower the quality of goods and / or services for purchasers who wish to acquire goods and / or services through a bidding process. Bid rigging is, therefore, an agreement between competitors not to compete.
