'I was dismayed by all the drama'

Romy Titus aims to help cleanse boxing of negativity

By Bongani Magasela

"I was shocked," this is how Romy Titus described her reaction when she made the cut as one of the seven members of the board of Boxing SA that was announced by sports minister Zizi Kodwa on Tuesday.

"The interview process was vigorous," she said yesterday. "I am humbled, honoured, anxious but excited for what lies ahead."

Titus is a former boxing pre-sender of SABC's TKO Magazine. She is Safa media officer and also a football producer for SuperSport.

Titus is also armed with a Master's in business administration management.

Titus, Nande Mpshe, (administrator, editor and English tutor), Princess Nongoma (auditor) and Dr Marry Sitati (specialist obstetrician and gynaecologist) are the four women who will be at the helm for three years alongside Sfiso Shongwe (chairman), Sakhiwo Sodo and Luxolo September.

Shongwe is a former boxing promoter with The Disney Walt Company and Sodo is a vastly experienced boxing administrator. September is head of TV at CAF in Cairo, Egypt.

Added Titus: "Flying back from Rwanda with Bafana Bafana on Wednesday last week, I had just an hour to prepare myself and my daughter to be at the OR Tambo Airport to catch a flight to Cape Town to attend my brother's wedding.

"On our way out to breakfast from my grandparents' home on Saturday, I asked my aunt if I can get boxing gloves that belonged to my grandfather [Alexander Titus] who was an amateur boxer. It was around that time I received a call about my appointment to the BSA board."

She is prepared to serve for the betterment of the sport and for her grandfather who was an amateur boxer at the Peninsula Harriers Amateur boxing gym in Cape Town.

"After I left the TKO Magazine there had always been keen interest to know what was going on - news press has carried all negative news around boxing," she said.

"I was dismayed by the political drama that took the centre stage than the boxing - fighters and their big wins that should have made headlines.

"We need to get our house in order; that is what I think should be done first and foremost."

CERTIFICATE OF INDEPENDENT BID DETERMINATION

- 1 This Municipal Bidding Document (MBD) must form part of all bids¹ invited.
- 2 Section 4 (1) (b) (iii) of the Competition Act No. 89 of 1998, as amended, prohibits an agreement between, or concerted practice by, firms, or a decision by an association of firms, if it is between parties in a horizontal relationship and if it involves collusive bidding (or bid rigging).² Collusive bidding is a per se prohibition meaning that it cannot be justified under any grounds.
- 3 Municipal Supply Regulation 38 (1) prescribes that a supply chain management policy must provide measures for the combating of abuse of the supply chain management system, and must enable the accounting officer, among others, to:
 - a. take all reasonable steps to prevent such abuse;
 - b. reject the bid of any bidder if that bidder or any of its directors has abused the supply chain management system of the municipality or municipal entity or has committed any improper conduct in relation to such system; and
 - c. cancel a contract awarded to a person if the person committed any corrupt or fraudulent act during the bidding process or the execution of the contract.
- 4 This MBD serves as a certificate of declaration that would be used by institutions to ensure that, when bids are considered, reasonable steps are taken to prevent any form of bid-rigging.
- 5 In order to give effect to the above, the attached Certificate of Bid Determination (MBD 9) must be completed and submitted with the bid:

² Bid rigging (or collusive bidding) occurs when businesses, that would otherwise be expected to compete, secretly conspire to raise prices or lower the quality of goods and / or services for purchasers who wish to acquire goods and / or services through a bidding process. Bid rigging is, therefore, an agreement between competitors not to compete.
